Community Connect: Presence of Village Pradhans

A notable feature of this year's "Udayotsav" was the strong community representation. Several Pradhans (Village Heads) from nearby villages also attended the function, highlighting the college's deep connection with the local populace and its role as a key educational institution for the surrounding areas. The presence of the Pradhans underscores the college's commitment to inclusive education and community development.

The function was a perfect blend of cultural programs, academic acknowledgments, and community gathering, reinforcing UGC's motto of achieving excellence.

Young Nancy Tyagi Gifts Sketch to Chief Guest

During the function, Nancy Tyagi, a talented student from 7th class, presented a beautiful, hand-drawn sketch of the Chief Guest, Shri Rajkumar Sangwan ji, to him as a gift.

Chief Guest Honors Nancy Tyagi for Artistic Talent

'Udayotsav' Sees Launch of 'Akanksha' Magazine

'Akanksha' Magazine Inaugurated by Chief Guest

A significant event during the function was the formal inauguration and launch of the college's magazine, 'Akanksha'.

Inauguration Ceremony: The magazine was launched by the Chief Guest, Shri Rajkumar Sangwan ji, alongside the Special Guests

'Akanksha': Named in Honour of Professor Udayveer Singh's Daughter

Dignitaries' Signature: As a mark of endorsement and blessing for the new literary venture, Shri Rajkumar Sangwan ji and all the Special Guests signed copies of the 'Akanksha' magazine before departing. These autographed copies serve as valuable mementos of the inaugural launch.

It was revealed at the inauguration that the college magazine, launched by Chief Guest Shri Rajkumar Sangwan and the Special Guests, was founded and inspired by Professor Udayveer Singh.

MOTHERS HONORED FOR EXTRACURRICULAR PARTICIPATION AT UGC'S 'उद्योत्सव'

MOTHERS FELICITATED FOR EXTRACURRICULAR EXCELLENCE

REWARDING THE STARS OF TOMORROW: STUDENTS FELICITATED

A large number of students were presented with certificates and trophies by the Chief Guest, Shri Rajkumar Sangwan jii, for their outstanding achievements in extracurricular activities like cultural programs, sports, and various competitions. This reinforced the college's commitment to holistic development.

A unique and heart-warming segment of the 'Udayotsav' celebration was dedicated to recognizing the participation of mothers in various activities organized by the college.

Chief Guest's Initiative: The Chief Guest, Shri Rajkumar Sangwan jii, took the special initiative to personally honor the mothers who actively participated in the extracurricular activities held at the college.

Chief Guest Sangwan's Inspiring Speech on Progress and Development

Focus on School's Growth: Shri Sangwan ji praised the Unique Group of Colleges for its continuous progress and dedicated efforts in providing quality education since its inception. He lauded the management and faculty for establishing a nurturing and growth-oriented environment.

Message to Students: His speech was highly motivational for the students, emphasizing the importance of hard work, discipline, and leveraging the excellent facilities provided by the institution to achieve personal and professional success. He encouraged students to be active participants in the nation's development.

"उदयोत्सव": A SHOWCASE OF DIVERSE TALENT

The annual function of the Unique Group of Colleges (UGC), "Udayotsav," featured a spectacular array of performances by students from both the school and college levels.

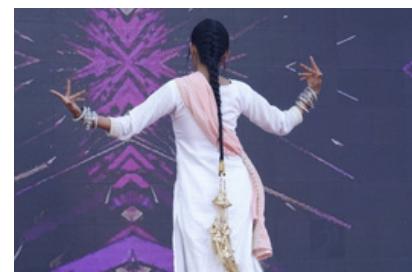

Senior students presented an insightful Mahabharata narrative.

- Younger children delighted the audience with joyful dances on the Doraemon song and showcased energy on the 'India-Wale' song.
- The most memorable act was a powerful Army Act performance by the school students, which deeply moved and emotionalized the Chief Guest, Shri Rajkumar Sangwan g, and all the esteemed guests.

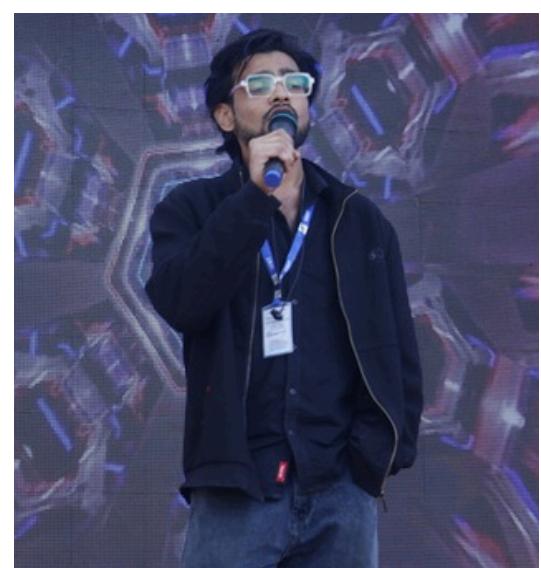

The performances highlighted the creativity and dedication of school and college students!

🎵 STAGE SPECTACLE: STUNNING PERFORMANCES BY UGC STUDENTS

"Udayotsav," was highlighted by a spectacular display of talent, with students from both the college and school levels delivering breathtaking performances on stage. Their energy and skill captivated the entire audience.

Prizes Distributed for All-Round Excellence

The Chief Guest, Shri Rajkumar Sangwan jii, along with the esteemed Guests of Honour (Smt. Manju Shiwach, Shri Vinod Vaishali, and Shri Ram Ashery ji), personally presented prizes to the deserving students.

The prizes acknowledged success across a wide spectrum:

- Sports Meet: Honoring winners of the athletic and sports competitions.
- Academic Excellence: Recognizing top performers in various scholastic subjects.
- Writing Skills: Awarding students who demonstrated exceptional literary talent.
- Discipline and Conduct: Celebrating students who exemplified outstanding discipline and character throughout the year.

The active participation of the dignitaries in the prize distribution underscored the institution's commitment to nurturing well-rounded personalities, recognizing that success goes far beyond just academics.

Special Feature: The Alumni Meet 2025

The "Udayotsav" event served as the annual Alumni Meet for the Unique Group of Colleges, bringing together former students who have graduated over the years.

- Networking and Nostalgia: Alumni seized the opportunity to reconnect with their alma mater, faculty, and former classmates, sharing their professional successes and inspiring the current batch of students.

Vote of Thanks

The event concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks expressing deep gratitude to the Chief Guest, Guests of Honour, actively participating parents, and the entire audience for their presence, encouragement, and support, which ensured the grand success of 'Udayotsav'.

A Special Note of Gratitude: Staff and Support Team

Beyond the dignitaries, parents, and audience, the college management specifically extended a heartfelt thank you to two crucial groups:

- Staff Members: A special appreciation was conveyed to all the Staff Members (faculty, administration, and technical teams) whose tireless efforts, planning, and long hours ensured the seamless execution of the complex "Udayotsav" program, from coordinating the performances to managing the logistics of the Alumni Meet 2025.

- Fourth Class Employees (Support Staff): A significant acknowledgement was given to the Fourth Class Employees (Support Staff). These dedicated workers, who handle crucial maintenance, cleaning, and day-to-day support, were thanked for their vital, behind-the-scenes contributions that kept the campus immaculate and the event running smoothly.

Following the vote, the parents were invited for a grand lunch, strengthening the sense of community and fellowship.
